PCSO ROBERTSON VISITS DAVENHAM RAINBOWS AND DAVENHAM CofE PRIMARY SCHOOL

PCSO ROBERTSON together with PC EDGERTON attended DAVENHAM METHODIST CHURCH to visit the DAVENHAM RAINBOWS.

PCSO ROBERTSON and PC EDGERTON (Winsford) explained what the POLICE from , working with the community , helping and protecting people and what happens if you are in trouble with the police. Once the talk was over , PC EDGERTON then let the rainbows try out the different types of Police Uniform and PCSO ROBERTSON shown of the POLICE VAN, letting them go into the cell and turning on the police lights and sirens.

All of the Rainbows loved the visit , in which a thank you card was sent to Northwich Police station.

A couple of days after that another visit was made to DAVENHAM PRIMARY SCHOOL and visited the RECEPTION CLASS.

PCSO FERRERIA (Winsford) joined PCSO ROBERTSON and PC EDGERTON. Together all provided the children the same talk and interaction as they did with the Davenham Rainbows , but this time brought along the Fin gerprint kit and spoke about how criminals leave traces of their DNA , especially fingerprints and completed an activity in which all completed a fingerprint marking activity.

Just like the Rainbows, the children of Reception Class enjoyed the visit

THE KNIFE SURRENDER BIN IS OUT WITHIN THE COMMUNITY

The Knife surrender bin helps people within the community dispose of knives safely. In the past if residents with the community had knives to dispose of they would have to take them to the nearest recycling center or police station. Now with the help of social media / phones , if there is any residents who have any knives they need to dispose of they can now contact their local PCSO and arrange for the KNIFE BIN to be taken to them.

If there is anyone who has any knives to dispose of they can contact PCSO LEE ROBERTSON via his email :

PARKING PATROLS WITHIN THE COMMUNITY

Over the past couple of months there has been a range of issues that relate to parking that has reported to PCSO ROBERTSON. With this patrols have been put into place around areas that have been reported. The issues include:

- PARKING ON A FOOTPATH—parking on a footpath is allowed AS LONG AS a wheelchair / pram user can still get passed.
- COMPLETE OBSTRUCTION OF A FOOTPATH
- PARKING TOO CLOSE TO A JUNCTION
- PARKING ON A BEND

As these are new issues in certain areas, advisory tickets were issued , but however registration numbers were taken down and further issues will result in FIXED PENALTY NOTICES BEING GIVEN.

MINI POLICE

KINGSMEAD MINI POLICE ARE THE STARS OF THE CEREMONY

Recently it was the start of the LEGAL YEAR, and to celebrate this there was a ceremony that took place at CHESTER CATHEDRAL. Each year the ceremony is attended by HIGH COURT JUDGES , DISTRICT JUDGES , MAGISTRATES , CHIEF CONSTABLE OF CHESHIRE POLICE , POLICE CRIME COMMISSIONER and THE HIGH SHERRIF OF CHESHIRE.

Within the Ceremony the HIGH SHERRIF (CLARE HAYWARD) was conducting a speech about the good work that CRIMEBEAT has done for the young children within CHESHIRE. CRIMEBEAT is a charity that raises money from the proceeds of crime and then is funded to the community. They were the initial funders who got the MINI POLICE up and running in NORTHWICH and with that and the positive news and feedback that CLARE had heard about the KINGSMEAD MINI POLICE , they were invited to attend the ceremony.

At the ceremony the MINI POLICE met with HIGH JUDGES and representatives from the legal system and had a little photo shoot with them.

At 1115 there was a procession from CHESTER TOWN HALL to the CATHEDRAL which included PCSO ROBERTSON and the MINI POLICE and then at 1130 the ceremony took place. The MINI POLICE were invited up and speak about the program, Why they joined and What they enjoyed about the program.

After the ceremony the MINI POLICE and family were invited back to the hall town for refreshments , and the general feedback at the town hall was that they were the stars of the show.
